A BOY SEVERELY INJURED.

Hit with a Baseball and Knocked Breathless -Carried Home, Physician Summoned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shirk Lose Another Child-A Small Blaze Calls Out the Department.

Yesterday afternoon a number of boys about 15 years of age were playing ball near Liberty Park. Among them was a boy named Stone, son of Postman Edgar D. Stone, one of his companions threw the ball swiftly for him to catch, but he missed it and was struck a severe blow in the side, knocking him breathless to the ground. He was carried home and Dr. H. B. Forbes was summoned. He soon had the boy feeling better, and today he seems to be getting along alright. It is now thought that he was not injured in-

ANOTHER SAD BEREAVEMENT.

Saturday morning the angel of death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. 7. M. Shirk for the second time within ten days. This time their little son ten days. This time their little son Trueman, eight years of age, was called to the great beyond after a short illness of typhoid fever. The funeral services were held this afternoon at the M. E. church. They were attended by a concourse of friends who feel to extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family in their hour of heavy smitting.

A SMALL BLAZE.

The fire department was called out last night to a small blaze in a vacant room in the rear of Munsey's cigar store on 25th street. The department made a quick run and by the use of the chemical engine the flames were soon extinguished. The loss amounts to about $25, who the owner of the building is could not be learned.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time sis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pep-sin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not catharic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, nour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

VERNAL.

Legal and Criminal Docket Disposed of by Judge Booth.

Special Correspondence. Vernal, Uintah Co., March 29 .- The March term of court has finally ended. It was not very long, but some of the cases were so long drawn out that it had the same effect. The case of Whip-ple vs Preece et al, was the hardest fought case in the history of the court in Uintah county. Both sides put forth every effort to win. The jury brought in a unanimous verdict for the defendants. The case grew out of a judg-ment of L. Johnson & Sons vs Edward Whipple and Asenath Chadwick for about $1,700, in which an execution was served by Sheriff Preece, and a fine band of horses levied upon and sold. Whipple claimed the horses as his private property and brought suit against the sheriff and his bondsmen for dam-ages, the sum claimed being $10,000. This makes the second time the case has been decided against Whipple, but he is now talking of carrying it to the Supreme court.

FIVE YEARS IN THE PEN.

The next case was the State vs James The next case was the state vs James W. Beddo, charged with rape, the victim being the tweive-year-old daughter of A. C. McCarrel. This case was also strongly contested, but the jury brought in a verdict of guilty and Judge Booth sentenced him to five year-is the strongly Booth sentenced him to five years in the State prison.

WILL SERVE EIGHTEEN MONTHS. In the case of the State vs Edward McKee, grand larceny, defendant en-tered a plea of guilty, also implicating Joe Steinaker, but later he qualified his statement with the evident desire to clear Steinaker. McKee was sentenced by Judge Booth to fifteen months in the Sta) prison, and he goes to join his brothers, who are now doing time in the penitentiary.

The case of Pardon Dodds vs Wm. Preece, occupied the closing hours of the court and was tried without a jury. This case also grew out of the service of an attachment by the sheriff, who subsequently released the attached property without serving an execution, which had issued from the justice's court. The sheriff claimed that the property was not the property of the defendant and on that ground released it. The case has been pending for several terms and is finally ended, and case taken under advisement, and will be decided by Judge Booth at Provo.
